

Send out an old quilt—Quilts as Homespun War Memorials

Jennifer Reeder, George Mason University

Appendix

1. Fragment of a tied comforter made in Boston about 1855, with a photograph of Dr. Sylvester B. Prentiss. Collection of the Kansas State Historical Society. Photo courtesy of the Kansas Quilt Project. Brackman, Quilts from the Civil War, 8.

2. Wedding quilt. Elizabeth Skiles Ward. Photo in Brackman, Quilts from the Civil War, 51.

3. Log Cabin. Frances Mays Hargrove, ca. 1860, Cobb County, Georgia. 68" x 89" cotton, hand-pieced on foundation with embroidery, unquilted. Collection of Laura Belle J. Bell, granddaughter-in-law of maker. Photo in Weinraub, Georgia Quilts, 110.

4. Lone Star. Maker said to be African American house slave of James Elem Baugh, ca. 1850, Shoulderbone Creek (Hancock County), Georgia. 87" x 87" cotton, hand-pieced and hand-quilted. Collection of Dr. James Emory Baugh. Photo in Georgia Quilts, 80-81.

5. Pea Ridge Lily. Pope family, ca. 1860, Benton County, Arkansas. 67" x 77". Collection of Jeananne Wright. Photo in Brackman, Quilts of the Civil War, 94.

6. Rose Tree. Maker unknown, n.d., possibly Tennessee. 92" x 72" cotton, appliqué. Collection of Ella Ree Bounds. Photo courtesy of Ramsey and Waldvogel, Southern Quilts, 51.

7. Chain with Appliqué. Mary Benson Lockridge, 1850s, Lockridge Mill, Weakley County, Tennessee. 84" x 72" cotton, pieced and appliqué. Collection of John W. Graber. Photo courtesy of Ramsey and Waldvogel, Southern Quilts, 64.

8. Barbara Lotspeich Broyles, ca. 1840, Rhea County, Tennessee. 81" x 77" cotton, quilted and stuffed. Collection of Bettye Broyles. Photo courtesy of Ramsey and Waldvogel, Southern Quilts, 47-49.

9. Patriotic Quilt Variation. Maker unknown, n.d., New York. 76" x 88 1/4" cotton, hand-piecing, hand appliqué. Daughters of the American Revolution, Washington, D.C. Photo courtesy of D.A.R.

10. Alabama Gunboat Quilt. Martha Jane Hatter, ca. 1861, Greensboro, Alabama. 66" x 66" silk taffeta, wool challis, and cotton; appliqué and silk embroidery; stuffing. Birmingham Museum of Art. Photo courtesy of Ramsey and Waldvogel, Southern Quilts, 87.

11. Friendship. Cornelia Dow and others, 1864, Portland, Maine. 71" x 81" cotton, pieced and appliqué. Collection of Simmons family. Photo in Ferrero, Hedges, and Silber, Hearts and Hands, 75.

12. Confederate Appliqué Quilt. Susan Robb, ca. 1863-1865, possibly Arkansas, Texas, or Mississippi. 77" x 81" cotton, appliqué, reverse appliqué, and embroidery. Collection of the Museum of Texas Tech University, Lubbock, TX. Photo in Ramsey and Waldvogel, Southern Quilts, 19-22.

13. Cost of War quilt. Betty Wood, 2007, Blodgett Mills, NY. Photographs and cotton. Photo on <http://wilderside.wordpress.com>.

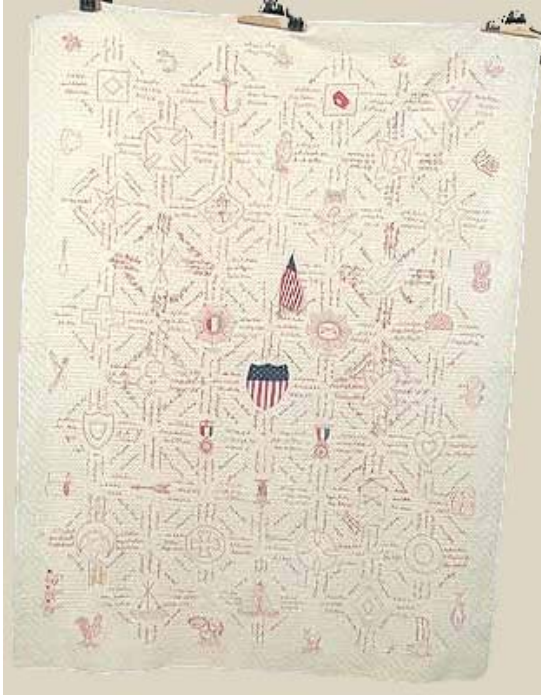

14. Patriotic. Mrs. Alfred Van Fleet, 1866, Illinois. 80" x 66" cotton, pieced, appliquéd, embroidery. Collection of Yakima Valley Museum and Historical Association, Yakima, WA. Photo in Ferrero, Hedges, and Silber, Hearts and Hands, 78.

15. Patriotic. Elizabeth Holmes, 1869, location unknown. 90" x 71" cotton, pieced and appliquéd. Collection of Bill and Maggie Pearson. Photo in Ferrero, Hedges, and Silber, Hearts and Hands, 10.

Jennifer Reeder, George Mason University

16. Civil War quilt. Maker unknown, date unknown. location unknown. Appraised by Susan Kleckner, Antiques Roadshow, San Diego, CA, 2002. Photo on <http://www.pqs.org>

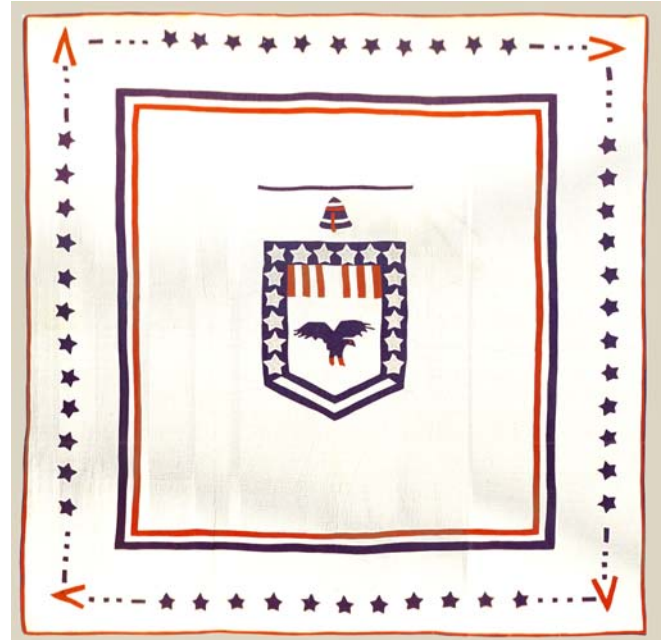

17. Roll Call quilt. Maker unknown, June 1944, Newport, TX. 66 1/2" x 86" cotton, pieced. New England Quilt Museum. Photo, Sue Reich, World War II Quilts Exhibition CD.

18. Gold Star Mothers quilt. Mrs. Earl E. Schaeffer, 1945-1946, Zanesville, OH. 68" x 68" cotton, pieced. Collection of the Pioneer and Historical Society of Muskingum, Zanesville, OH.

19. Civil War Counterpane. Made by a wounded Union Soldier during convalescence, 3rd quarter 19th century, New Jersey. 96" x 111" cotton, pieced and appliquéd. Shelburne Museum, Shelburne, VT. Photo courtesy of Orlofsky and Orlofsky, Quilts in America, 164.

20. Patriotic Commemorative. Allie Butler Roberts, 1944-1945, Whitfield County, GA. 75 ½" x 75 ½" cotton, hand-pieced and hand-quilted. Private collection. Photo in Weinraub, Georgia Quilts, 139.

21. Sea Wings to Glory. Maker unknown, 1943, Mountain Mist Company. 71 ½" x 87" cotton, appliquéd. Photo from Quilts of World War II Exhibition, CD Rom.